wbouenware, in paper products, and in other lines, as the result of the originality, enterprise, foresight and capacity of Richmond men. These men have shown what can be done in manufacturing. They have been leaders of progress, the ploneers of Richmond's future greatness, the pathfinders of industry. They have blazed the way for a mighty development in the years to come, and the future is full of golden promise for Richmond as a great manufacturing centre. But we should not be forgetful or neglectful of the rdvantike to be derived from trade with the people of our cwn State, and especially from trade with those sections lying within less than a hundred miles of Richmond.

Our farmers are now more prosperlons lying within less than a hunired miles of Richmosd.

Our farmers are now more prosperous than at any time in the history of the State. The growth of their necessities has been stupendous in recent years, and their demands are widening and expanding with ever accelerating speed. But their ability to buy is growing at a pace that surpages their needs. They are working as they nevor worked before, and to energy, inouters and unceasing toof they are adding thrift fugality and enterprise. And they have their reward. They have mency in their inside pockets, and year by year the thee of their prosperity sweeps higher and fuller and strong or. The world never held a better field for trade than that which ripens within sight of the necessarie of fichmend. It is for you to say whether you will so out and possess the land.

really begin to build that New York to Florida highway, you must come through Lunenburg for good grades, for easy grades, and for enthusiast'c receptions. Lunenburg will meet you at the border with good roads. Good roads that are not just now, but good roads that are coming within the next six to ten months. We have caught the good roads fever and we are getting to work. My suggestion is that you do not leave Lunenburg off the good roads map when you figure on the 'New York to Florida thoroughfare.'"

Nobody had any idea of leaving Lunenburg out of the good roads map if Lunenburg wants to be in it. It remains for Lunenburg to say if it wants to be on that map, and it looks as if the "old free state" wants to get right in the contre of it. Her geographical situation is all right and her good roads hustling seems to be getting all right.

The weather has been mighty favorable for fruit growing in Virginia. Don't let our fruit growers try to work the old fake about the frost scare. It isn't creditable to Virginia fruit growers. And then, it is likely to get you in the Ananies Club, don't to get you in the Ananies Club, don't you know.
